PUBLISHED STATEMENTS OF RETIREMENT PREMATURE

Judge Taylor Repudiates Announcement Made by County Papers.

SCOURCE OF THE ARTICLES

Efforts Being Made by County Seat Interests to Create Dissensions.

During the past week or so several articles have appeard in various Washington county papers to the effect that when Judge J. F. Taylor's term of office expires five years hence, he will retire to private life and resume the practice of law. These stories also suggest a number of probable candidates for the judgeship in such a manner as to infer that Judge Taylor's retirement from the bench will not be voluntary and that such action will be forced by certain strong political influences that will be arrayed against him. The list of available candidates mentioned as possible to contend for the nomination for the judgeship includes some who are at present considered as Judge Taylor's supporters, and the evident purpose of the articles is to show that Judge Taylor is being deceived by his friends.

While Judge Taylor's many friends in this section attach little credence to the reports that he would retire from the bench at the expiration of his term it was not definitely known whether or not he had made such a declaration, and in order to satisfy them on that score a representative of the Mail, who was in Washington this week, interviewed Judge Taylor on the subject. Judge Taylor said:

"I have never told any person that I would not be a candidate for re-election at the expiration of my term. I was surprised to see the statements that I expected to retire, as no one had ever spoken to me on the subject. I thought it an extraordinary proceeding to publish such positive statements as to my future action, without at least consulting me in order to verify the statements, particularly when the authors had every opportunity to do so. I have never said I would not be a candidate for re-election."

The public generally attributes these articles to one source, and that is the

ADDRESS ON MEXICAN LIFE MADE BEFORE MISSIONARY SOCIETY

The Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the M. E. church held its regular meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs Thomas Eagye. The subject of the meeting was "Mexico." Many views of Mexico and of the Mexican people were used and added much to the interest of the meeting.

A typical Mexican lunch was served, consisting of brown bread, beans and coffee. About 25 ladies were present and the society received eight new members. A thanks offering was taken up which amounted to $10.

It is claimed that the mother is not a fit person to have the custody of a minor child and has no suitable home for his maintenance and support and that she refuses to give him up. D. M. McCloskey represents the petitioner.

Joseph Hemphill Announces Baker and Landefeld for Delegate.

Mr. Landefeld is one of the active young Republicans of Monongahela, and has a large following. He will make an active canvass for the office.

VOTES NECESSARY TO WIN IN MAIL-MIRROR CONTEST

Any Prize Worth Putting Forth Much Effort For---Get as Many of the Bonus Votes This Week as Possible.

NEW CONTESTANT IN THE SECOND DISTRICT

What are you doing this week? Are you taking advantage of the twenty-five thousand bonus vote offer? It will mean votes to you, and it is going to take lots of votes to win that Reo Automobile. Just think of the pleasure that is yours for doing three weeks of hard work. Don't think all you have to do is enter your name and then say I am in the contest. You must work if you want to win.

And if you don't win the First Grand Prize, you still have a chance on another Prize that is worth all your efforts. Second Grand Prize in this great contest, $400.00 Grand Upright Boston Piano, purchased of S. L. Woodward and on display at his store, McKean avenue. Call at his store and see if you don't think its worth your time. If your time's that valuable, you don't belong in this valley.

Well, a watch. It is something that you always need. You may have one, but in the best makes there is always a time when it has to be cleaned, or some other small repair that takes some time. Now is your opportunity to get one for a little hard work. There is one for each district, Elgin or Waltham, ladies' or gents' purchased of and on display at J. W. McKean's jewelry store, McKean avenue.

You can't win one of these prizes by waiting. This is your opportunity, and you should get the votes now. It will take votes to win in this contest, and if you neglect this opportunity of extra votes it may mean disappointment at the close of the struggle. Do your work. Get your votes. That is the only way to win a prize.

A new candidate entered the race and is going out after one of the prizes. When a candidate enters the race at this stage of the game means that she is a fighter.

ENUMERATORS, NOT TAX COLLECTORS

Information Vouchsafed Census Men will Not be Used Against People.

Letters from the census supervisors to the United States Census Bureau show the erronenos apprehension of a considerable element of the population that the answers to the enumerators' questions in the next census, beginning April 15, this year, will cause increased taxation, legal entanglements or injurious consequences to their presons and property.

In order to quiet such unfounded fears, which would, unless removed, materially affect the accuracy of the census, the bureau has prepared an official statement relative to the decennial census, its origin, purpose and uses.

This statement should furnish complete assurance tc those concerned that informtion given the enumerators is held by the Census Bureau in the strictest confidence with reference to the identity of the informants, as required by the policy of the bureau and commanded by the law of the United States.

The bureau earnestly hopes that clergymen, priests, physicians, school teachers, employers, and other public-spirited citizens who come in contact with large numbers of people, will co-operate with the bureau by telling persons who are believed to entertain erroneous opinions of the census the real facts and urging them to give full replies to the enumerators. Teachers are particularly requested to speak of the census to the school children and asks them to tell their parents about it.

The statement issued by the bureau explains that the Constitution requires a census of the population to be taken every ten years in order to reapportion State representation in the National House of Representatives. It is the means also to ascertain the increase in the population, agriculture, industries and resources of the nation since the last census.

It is emphatically declared by the statement that the information sought from the people of the United States is iussed solely for general statistical purposes. It will neither be published nor used in any other way to disclose facts regarding any individual or enterprise. The census, it goes on to say, is not, never has been, and can not be employed to obtain information that can be used in any way in the assessment of property for purposes of taxation or the collection of taxes, either National, State or local; or for deportation proceedings, extradition measures, army or navy conscription, internal revenue investigationg, compulsory school attendance, child labor law prosecutions, quarantine regulations or in any way to affect the life, liberty, or property of any person.

It points out that replies to the enumerators are and must be held by the Census Bureau in strict and absolute confidence. All the bureau officials, supervisors, supervisors' clerks, enumerators and interpreters, before entering upon their duties, are obligated to take a solemn oath not to disclose any information they may obtain except to the Census Bureau, and a violation of the United States law in regard to this oath means a $1,000 fine or imprisonment for two years, or both, in the discretion of the court.

ROBERT G. STALEY ARRESTED AT NOON

Former Postmaster of North Charleroi Taken to Pittsburg Today.

Robert G. Staley, the deposed postmaster at North Charleroi was arrested by a United States deputy marshal at about noon today and taken to Pittsburg. The arrest was the outcome of the discovery of the deficiency of $1,067 in the accounts of Staley at the North Charleroi postoffice. The arrest did not come unexpectedly, except to Mr. Staley, who thought that everything had been settled. It is not known when he will have a hearing.

HARRY GLASS HAS A NEW POSITION

Harry Glass, who has been with the H. W. Johns-Manville company for some time as manager of the Pittsburg district, has relinquished that position, and engaged with the Westinghouse company as their traveling representative. His territory will extend as far west as Denver. His many friends in Charleroi will be glad to hear of this continued advancement on the part of Mr. Glass, who was a popular official when he was located with the West Penn company in Charleroi.

TRAVELING LIBRARY PLAN TAKES WELL HERE

The plan of the Citizens Entertainment course announced first in yesterday's issue of the Mail, to assist in establishing a traveling library has been productive of great interest, and last night all the volumns, 27 in number, that had been secured were given out. The plan is a co-operative one, where a person securing a book after reading it writes his name on the leaf and passes it on to some one else.

SWENSSON PLACES VALUE OF BRIDGE AT $50,000

Second Hearing on Belle Vernon Structure Held by Viewers.

WILL MEET NEXT WEEK

Report Will be Formulated Then to be Presented to the County Counts.

For the purpose of getting an idea of the value of the Belle Vernon bridge, the expert testimony of Emil Swensson was heard by the viewers from Fayette and Washington counties at the Fort Pitt hotel, Pittsburg, yesterday. The hearing was the second one in the move to have the bridge freed. Mr. Swensson placed the value of the bridge at about $50,000, and stated that it would take $4,000 or $5,000 a year to keep it in repair. The viewers did not frame any report to the courts yesterday, adjourning to meet next Wednesday at the same place.

The Washington County commissioners, John A. Berry, Thomas Hill and W. J. Simth were in attendance at the meeting. There was a delegation of about 30 interested persons in attendance from Belle Vernon and Speers. Attorney Alex Templeton for the Washington county petitioners and T. P. Jones for the Fayette county petitioners were present.

The viewers are D. M. Campsey, president, Charles B. Franks, secretary S. D. Taylor, J. V. Johnson, J. R. Bryne and Samuel W. Henshaw.

The bridge owners have not yet set a value upon the structure, but will do this if the viewers make a favorable report to the courts.

Extra Entertainment is Greatly Enjoyed

Mrs. Foss Lamprell-Whitney presented a series of interpretive readings at School Hall last night, in an extra number on the entertainment course. There was not so many present as might have been desired, but all who went felt well repaid. Mrs. Lamprell-Whitney is a reader of no mean ability. An interpretation of the strong scenes of "The Lion and the Mouse," formed the main part of the program and the audience was delighted.

In Safe Hands.

Although somewhat premature, as the office will not be vacant until five years hence, the attempts on the part of certain newspapers in the county to discredit Judge Taylor as a candidate to succeed himself will meet with but scant consideration on the part of the public. Washington county is considered most fortunate in the character and standing of its court, which is a bulwark for public safety and well being in these most strenuous times, and there is no desire on the part of the people to change existing conditions, particularly when the feeling is that the judiciary is in safe and capable hands.

Every year it is becoming more and more apparent that the office of judge should not become the spoils for politicians to disburse for public rewards or private ambitions. Nothing is more vital to the public welfare than a judiciary of the best character and standing, and this is so universally recognized that when a judge has been tried and not found wanting he is retained so long as he is capable of performing his duties. Happily the people of Washington county have this matter in their own hands, and the uniform primary election law precludes the possibility of any of the alleged deals on the part of certain political influences in regard to the judiciary from materializing.

Getting Down to Facts.

In view of the difference of opinion in regard to the project for freeing the Belle Vernon bridge and making it a joint county affair, the testimony of Emil Swensson at the hearing of the viewers in Pittsburg yesterday will be valuable Mr. Swensson is one of the leading bridge construction enigneers of the country and his opinion as to the valuation of the present structure should carry conviction. He estimates the structure to be worth $50,000 at the present time with an expenditure of from $4,000 to $5,000 a year necessary to keep it in repair.

There has been a feeling in some quarters that the counties would be buncoed if the bridge were taken over, as they would likely to be called upon to pay much more than the structure is worth. This was the cause of some opposition to the project. The viewers, however, are getting at the truth, and with the testimony of such an expect as Mr. Swensson, the commissioners of Washington and Fayette are not likely to involve their respective counties by taking over an unstable structure and paying more for it than it is worth. The people of that section want a free bridge, but they do not ask their counties to make unwarranted expenditures to attain it.

ELECTRIC SPARKS

Peary has sort of caught the Dr. Cook fever about lecturing.

It sort of seems that the trusts are doing all they can to discredit Col. Teddy Roosevelt now that he is ready to start home.

It is often a subject of much wonder what good it does some fellows to go to college when they already know more than they can be taught there.

The troublesome milk question has been the most troublesome thing that ever happened in Charleroi since the P. O. M. Baseball league broke up.

The startling statement has been made that flies hatch in the human stomach. If that's the case all our pride in being the only two footed animal in existance has gone for naught. We are an insect instead.

Coyle Theatre.

A program of unsurpassed vaudeville has been engaged for the last half of this week beginning with today's matinee at the Coyle Theatre.

The bill is headlined by the York-Herbert Trio, one of the most versatile acts now playing this time.

Pearl Evans, the girl with the big voice, will sing some of the favorite classics. Her rendition of "The Last Rose of Summer," is said to be especially good.

Those somewhat different dancers, Hays and Lind, will offer their novelty dancing act for your approval.

Arthur Borella, the "Musical General," and Rees and Dayton, the musical comedy duo, will help round out a program of exceptional merit.

There will be daily matinees with a special souvenir matinee on Saturday for the ladies and children. Two performances will be given each evening at 7:30 and 9 p. m. Admission 10 cents. First 9 rows down stairs at 15 cents.

On Saturday evening three shows will be given at 7, 8:15 and 9:30.

PUBLISHED STATEMENTS

Acheson influences, which are trying in every possible manner to create dissension within the Republican ranks in the county. The fact that Congressman J. K. Tener's name was mentioned as sanctioning an alleged deal to depose Judge Taylor was enough to arouse suspicion, for it is a well known fact that Mr. Tener, both publicly and privately, has been a staunch friend and supporter of both Judge Taylor and Judge McIlvaine. This was most forcibly demonstrated when the Citizens party and Lincoln Republicans fused with the Democrats in an effort to overthrow Acheson in the county in the campaigns of 1905 and 1906. In each of these campaigns Mr. Tener was besought to lend his aid and influence and was offered political inducements that had every promise of success, but he absolutely refused for the reason that both Judges Taylor and McIlvaine were candidates for re election in each of these campaigns on the regular Republican ticket. This fact alone prevented many strong and influential Republicans, not only in the river district but all over the county, from becoming insurgents in those campaigns, and it was the judicial candidates that saved Acheson from defeat each time.

Judge Taylor is a comparatively young man, and the expiration of the first half of his second term finds him in the prime of his usefulness as a jurist. He is an able and popular judge, universally esteemed throughout the county, and is particularly strong with the county bar. Under these conditions it is a logical inference, on the part of the public at least, that Judge Taylor will naturally succeed himself at the end of his term, as there is no reason why he should retire in the prime of his usefulness That was the case with Judge J. A. McIlvaine, and although the latter had to make a campaign against a fusion combination, yet so strong was popular sentiment in his favor, that his candidacy did not enter into the rancor of the campaign, and he was elected by a large majority to a third term, being almost the unanimous choice of the county bar.

It is a well known fact that the ability and standing of the Washington county judges is recognized throughout the State, and the people of the county have no desire to make any changes So far as public sentiment is concerned, it is the general wish that conditions will be such that Judge Taylor will succeed himself at the end of his term and continue to serve the county with the same dignity and honor that characterizes his present administration.

ACCIDENT, NOT FOUL PLAY CAUSED DEATH OF RICHARD BRADY

Satisfied that no crime had been committed and that Richard Brady, 57 years old, of Gallatin, whose dead body was found on the river bank not far from Manown yesterday morning, had met his death from an accident, Allegheny county authorities last night ordered the release of Charles Dias, who had been arrested as a suspect. The action was taken following a post mortem examination of Brady's body, by Deputy Coroner Richard Carney and Dr. C. B. Snchildecker.

Dias, who is 26 years, old in telling his story, stated that he had been at Clairton Tuesday and was on his way to the home of his father, Moses Dias, near Milesville when he stopped at Axelton. There he met Brady and the two spent considerable time at a bar. About 8 o'clock last evening they started for Manown, walking along the railroad tracks.

Near the Coshocton Iron works where the river bank is about 30 feet high they were forced to step from the tracks to avoid a train. They missed their footing and went over the bank, Brady falling into the river. Dias said he pulled Brady from the water and then went to Manown where he told his story which was not believed as it was thought Dias was drunk. Later members of the Brady family were notified and went to the place where they found Brady dead, his head in the water. Dias was soon arrestted.

Brady was 57 years of age and leaves a wife, six sons and two daughters. Dias is from a good family.

PUBLISHED STATEMENTS OF RETIREMENT PREMATURE

Judge Taylor Repudiates Announcement Made by County Papers.

SCOURCE OF THE ARTICLES

Efforts Being Made by County Seat Interests to Create Dissensions.

During the past week or so several articles have appeard in various Washington county papers to the effect that when Judge J. F. Taylor's term of office expires five years hence, he will retire to private life and resume the practice of law. These stories also suggest a number of probable candidates for the judgeship in such a manner as to infer that Judge Taylor's retirement from the bench will not be voluntary and that such action will be forced by certain strong political influences that will be arrayed against him. The list of available candidates mentioned as possible to contend for the nomination for the judgeship includes some who are at present considered as Judge Taylor's supporters, and the evident purpose of the articles is to show that Judge Taylor is being deceived by his friends.

While Judge Taylor's many friends in this section attach little credence to the reports that he would retire from the bench at the expiration of his term it was not definitely known whether or not he had made such a declaration, and in order to satisfy them on that score a representative of the Mail, who was in Washington this week, interviewed Judge Taylor on the subject. Judge Taylor said:

"I have never told any person that I would not be a candidate for re-election at the expiration of my term. I was surprised to see the statements that I expected to retire, as no one had ever spoken to me on the subject. I thought it an extraordinary proceeding to publish such positive statements as to my future action, without at least consulting me in order to verify the statements, particularly when the authors had every opportunity to do so. I have never said I would not be a candidate for re-election."

The public generally attributes these articles to one source, and that is the

ENUMERATORS, NOT TAX COLLECTORS

Information Vouchsafed Census Men will Not be Used Against People.

Letters from the census supervisors to the United States Census Bureau show the erronenos apprehension of a considerable element of the population that the answers to the enumerators' questions in the next census, beginning April 15, this year, will cause increased taxation, legal entanglements or injurious consequences to their presons and property.

In order to quiet such unfounded fears, which would, unless removed, materially affect the accuracy of the census, the bureau has prepared an official statement relative to the decennial census, its origin, purpose and uses.

This statement should furnish complete assurance tc those concerned that informtion given the enumerators is held by the Census Bureau in the strictest confidence with reference to the identity of the informants, as required by the policy of the bureau and commanded by the law of the United States.

The bureau earnestly hopes that clergymen, priests, physicians, school teachers, employers, and other public-spirited citizens who come in contact with large numbers of people, will co-operate with the bureau by telling persons who are believed to entertain erroneous opinions of the census the real facts and urging them to give full replies to the enumerators. Teachers are particularly requested to speak of the census to the school children and asks them to tell their parents about it.

The statement issued by the bureau explains that the Constitution requires a census of the population to be taken every ten years in order to reapportion State representation in the National House of Representatives. It is the means also to ascertain the increase in the population, agriculture, industries and resources of the nation since the last census.

It is emphatically declared by the statement that the information sought from the people of the United States is issued solely for general statistical purposes. It will neither be published nor used in any other way to disclose facts regarding any individual or enterprise. The census, it goes on to say, is not, never has been, and can not be employed to obtain information that can be used in any way in the assessment of property for purposes of taxation or the collection of taxes, either National, State or local; or for deportation proceedings, extradition measures, army or navy conscription, internal revenue investigations, compulsory school attendance, child labor law prosecutions, quarantine regulations or in any way to affect the life, liberty, or property of any person.

It points out that replies to the enumerators are and must be held by the Census Bureau in strict and absolute confidence. All the bureau officials, supervisors, supervisors' clerks, enumerators and interpreters, before entering upon their duties, are obligated to take a solemn oath not to disclose any information they may obtain except to the Census Bureau, and a violation of the United States law in regard to this oath means a $1,000 fine or imprisonment for two years, or both, in the discretion of the court.

Report Will be Formulated Then to be Presented to the County Counts.

For the purpose of getting an idea of the value of the Belle Vernon bridge, the expert testimony of Emil Swensson was heard by the viewers from Fayette and Washington counties at the Fort Pitt hotel, Pittsburg, yesterday. The hearing was the second one in the move to have the bridge freed. Mr. Swensson placed the value of the bridge at about $50,000, and stated that it would take $4,000 or $5,000 a year to keep it in repair. The viewers did not frame any report to the courts yesterday, adjourning to meet next Wednesday at the same place.

The Washington County commissioners, John A. Berry, Thomas Hill and W. J. Simth were in attendance at the meeting. There was a delegation of about 30 interested persons in attendance from Belle Vernon and Speers. Attorney Alex Templeton for the Washington county petitioners and T. P. The viewers are D. M. Campsey, president, Charles B. Franks, secretary S. D. Taylor, J. V. Johnson, J. R. Bryne and Samuel W. Henshaw.

The bridge owners have not yet set a value upon the structure, but will do this if the viewers make a favorable report to the courts.

He estimates the structure worth $50,000 at the present with an expenditure of from) to $5,000 a year necessary to keep it in repair.

There has been a feeling in some quarters that the counties would be buncoed if the bridge were taken over, as they would likely to be called upon to pay much more than the structure is worth. This was the cause of some opposition to the project. The viewers, however, are getting at the truth, and with the testimony of such an expect as Mr. Swensson, the commissioners of Washington and Fayette are not likely to involve their respective counties by taking over an unstable structure and paying more for it than it is worth. The people of that section want a free bridge, but they do not ask their counties to make unwarranted expenditures to attain it.

Coyle Theatre.

A program of unsurpassed vaudeville has been engaged for the last half of this week beginning with today's matinee at the Coyle Theatre.

The bill is headlined by the York-Herbert Trio, one of the most versatile acts now playing this time.

Pearl Evans, the girl with the big voice, will sing some of the favorite classics. Her rendition of "The Last Rose of Summer," is said to be especially good.

Arthur Borella, the "Musical General," and Rees and Dayton, the musical comedy duo, will help round out a program of exceptional merit.

There will be daily matinees with a special souvenir matinee on Saturday for the ladies and children. Two performances will be given each evening at 7.30 and 9 p. m. Admission 10 cents. First 9 rows down stairs at 15 cents.

On Saturday evening three shows will be given at 7, 8:15 and 9 30.

Acheson influences, which are trying in every possible manner to create dissension within the Republican ranks in the county. The fact that Congressman J. K. Tener's name was mentioned as sanctioning an alleged deal to depose Judge Taylor was enough to arouse suspicion, for it is a well known fact that Mr. Tener, both publicly and privately, has been a staunch friend and supporter of both Judge Taylor and Judge McIlvaine. This was most forcibly demonstrated when the Citizens party and Lincoln Republicans fused with the Democrats in an effort to overthrow Acheson in the county in the campaigns of 1905 and 1906. In each of these campaigns Mr. Tener was besought to lend his aid and influence and was offered political inducements that had every promise of success, but he absolutely refused for the reason that both Judges Taylor and McIlvaine were candidates for re election in each of these campaigns on the regular Republican ticket. This fact alone prevented many strong and influential Republicans, not only in the river district but all over the county, from becoming insurgents in those campaigns, and it was the judicial candidates that saved Acheson from defeat each time.

Judge Taylor is a comparatively young man, and the expiration of the first half of his second term finds him in the prime of his usefulness as a jurist. He is an able and popular judge, universally esteemed throughout the county, and is particularly strong with the county bar. Under these conditions it is a logical inference, on the part of the public at least, that Judge Taylor will naturally succeed himself at the end of his term, as there is no reason why he should retire in the prime of his usefulness That was the case with Judge J. A. McIlvaine, and although the latter had to make a campaign against a fusion combination, yet so strong was popular sentiment in his favor, that his candidacy did not enter into the rancor of the campaign, and he was elected by a large majority to a third term, being almost the unanimous choice of the county bar.

It is a well known fact that the ability and standing of the Washington county judges is recognized throughout the State, and the people of the county have no desire to make any changes So far as public sentiment is concerned, it is the general wish that conditions will be such that Judge Taylor will succeed himself at the end of his term and continue to serve the county with the same dignity and honor that characterizes his present administration.

ACCIDENT, NOT FOUL PLAY CAUSED DEATH OF RICHARD BRADY

Satisfied that no crime had been committed and that Richard Brady, 57 years old, of Gallatin, whose dead body was found on the river bank not far from Manown yesterday morning, had met his death from an accident, Allegheny county authorities last night ordered the release of Charles Dias, who had been arrested as a suspect. The action was taken following a post mortem examination of Brady's body, by Deputy Coroner Richard Carney and Dr. C. B. Snchildecker.

Dias, who is 26 years, old in telling his story, stated that he had been at Clairton Tuesday and was on his way to the home of his father, Moses Dias, near Milesville when he stopped at Axelton. There he met Brady and the two spent considerable time at a bar. About 8 o'clock last evening they started for Manown, walking along the railroad tracks.

Near the Coshocton Iron works where the river bank is about 30 feet high they were forced to step from the tracks to avoid a train. They missed their footing and went over the bank, Brady falling into the river. Dias said he pulled Brady from the water and then went to Manown where he told his story which was not believed as it was thought Dias was drunk. Later members of the Brady family were notified and went to the place where they found Brady dead, his head in the water. Dias was soon arrestted.

Brady was 57 years of age and leaves a wife, six sons and two daughters. Dias is from a good family.
